

Blue & Gold Basics: FFA Officers & Meetings

Career Development Events (CDE's)

competitive events which help promote and develop career skills learned through agricultural education

Chairperson

person who is in-charge of a committee, group or meeting

Committee

group of people who are appointed to take responsibility for a certain function

Correspondence

written communication exchanged for the purpose of business activity

Ex-Officio

member of a committee or group who has certain powers simply due to their position or holding an office

Parliamentary Procedure

set of rules followed by an assembly for conducting a meeting with the purpose of allowing everyone to be heard and to be able to make decisions without confusion

Program of Activities (POA)

yearly plan of an organization's activities planned to accomplish its goals and purposes